About the Community

Penn's Crossing is located in Lititz, PA, Manheim Township in Lancaster County. The impressive neighborhood offers award winning 2-story home designs, ranging from 2615 to 3433 square feet. Between the beautiful home offerings and the convenience of Neffsville Community Park, this is the neighborhood to call your home.

About the Area

Manheim Township was one of Lancaster County's first Townships established in 1729. Covering approximately 22.6 square miles, roughly 7.5 miles wide and 3.2 miles long, Manheim Township has a population of close to 40,000, making it the second largest municipality in terms of population in Lancaster County. However, despite its large population, Manheim Township is still defined as a small and serene farming community while remaining conveniently close to major transportation routes and amenities.

Schools

Penn's Crossing is in Manheim Township School District.
